

Concrete, component and method tests

Vertical-compression test on a DN500 reinforced-concrete pipe

Products subject to mandatory technical approval are required to undergo strict quality monitoring. IKT, as an officially designated test, monitoring and certification centre, validates the following, e.g. pipes, manholes, and special shapes in concrete, reinforced concrete and vitrified clay, including the associated pipe joints and sealing elements and agents.

read more